

Summer Experience Frequently Asked Questions

Why aren't mobile phones allowed at camp?

We have phones at each of our camps. If there is an emergency and you need to communicate with your child, please call or text us and we will connect you. We do not allow mobile phones at camp to give kids a time to explore the real world around them, build relationships with others, practice patience, and use valuable leadership skills. Mobile phones and other electronics are a big distraction for everyone and disrupt daily camp life.

How will camp staff communicate with families during the summer?

We will send out email inviting parents to join ClassDOJO a closed and secure platform for education, post on Facebook and instagram. In the case of residential camps, parents will be invited to join a WhatsApp group.

Are your staff trained and background checked?

Yes! We do several hours of training with both new and returning staff each summer. All of our staff are background checked each year, nearly all the staff at camp are teachers from the school.

What field trips do you go on?

Field trips to offsite locations are pending COVID-19 guidelines at this time.

What shoes should my child wear to camp?

Please send your child in close-toed athletic shoes or sandals that have an ankle strap that can get wet or dirty. No crocs or flip flops except when using the swimming pool.

What should my child bring to camp?

Please dress for the weather and wear clothes that can get dirty! Everyone should have sunscreen and water each day, we will provide limitless supplies of water and a reusable water bottle, no child is to bring class to the school.

Will daily health screenings be required?

Yes, at this time all campers, teens, and staff will be required to complete a daily COVID-19 health screening prior to arriving at camp, this includes a symptoms check, temperature check before entering the building and the use of hydroalcoholic gel. We will follow guidelines from ministry of health for any exposures, close contacts, or positive cases of COVID-19 at camp.

Will my child need to wear a cloth face covering at camp?

At this time, everyone age 6 and over is required to wear a properly fitting mask/cloth face covering during camp while in doors or in areas where they cannot maintain 1.5 meters distance, however we aware this the rules are modified in relation to the infection rate, we will communicate any changes via email.
